I came to work for Capitol Cellars in August of 2009. Subsequent to being with Capitol Cellars, I was living in Denver, Colorado, where I graduated from Regis University in May of 2008 with a degree in Communications and a minor in Marketing. I ventured in to the sports industry working with both the Denver Nuggets and the Denver Broncos before returning to my native city, Sacramento. I've always had a passion for wine – learning the “basics” from my father by tasting nothing other than Jordan and Silver Oak and exploring his detailed wine cellar. To this day, I have furthered my wine knowledge in numerous ways by not only working under Marcus, but taking part in trade tastings, wine camps, and exploring all the wonders Napa Valley has to offer. I am honored to be managing such a wonderful store and to work with some of the finest people in the industry.
